

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Is there a fee to participate in the Festival?

A. No. Activity participating within the Wales Festival of Innovation is operated on a non-financial arrangement with the Festival stakeholders and their organisations.

Q. Will the Festival help me organise my event?

A. We encourage the activity organisers to organise their own events to their own format and style. The Festival organisers will endeavor to help publicise the activity when it's listed on the Wales Festival of Innovation website.

Q. Will the Festival be liable for my activity?

A. The Festival is not liable or responsible for the activities they are promoting. This includes any financial liability to deliver the activity or guarantee of delegates. It will however do all it can to act as an effective portal to your website where delegates can register.

Q. Will my activity be mine or perceived to be branded as the Festival activity

A. The activity will remain branded and owned by the organisers. The organisers of the approved and participating activity may chose to use the Festival brand on their website. Certainly, it will be encouraged to associate with the Festival for the organisers internal publicity campaigns.

Q. Will delegates be registering with the main Festival website?

A. No, the delegates will register on the activity organisers website/chosen third party website which will be listed on the main Festival website.

Q. What happens after the Festival?

A. The Festival will be interested in receiving a review (or report) of your activity which could be published on the website. We would also welcome any accompanying case study material, PowerPoint presentations or electronic write-up material/useful links that could be hosted on the Festival website.
